

HERO

- a. a mythological or legendary figure often endowed with great strength or ability
- b. a person admired for his/her achievements, noble qualities and great courage
2. the main character in a literary or dramatic work, an event, period, or movement
3. an object of extreme admiration and devotion: icon / role model

MYTH

1. an ancient story about gods, heroes and magic
2. a. popular belief or tradition embodying the ideals and institutions of a society
- b. an unfounded or false notion
3. a theme or character type embodying an idea

Myth (n.) [mɪθ]: a traditional story concerning the early history of a people or explaining a natural or social phenomenon, and typically involving supernatural beings or events.

Hero (n.) [ˈhɪərəʊ]: in mythology and folklore, a person of superhuman qualities who is admired for his/her courage or outstanding achievements.

Exchange (n.) [ɪksˈtʃeɪndʒ]: act of giving and receiving something else in return.

EXCHANGE / FLOW

1. a continuous output (production)
2. a continuous movement or circulation. All types of exchanges: people, trade, media, etc.
3. a general movement or tendency

Power (n.) [paʊə]: a right or an authority given or delegated to a person or a body.

POWER

1. the ability or official capacity to exercise control, authority (the State, the government, political organization)
2. strength or force exerted or capable of being exerted; might (puissance)
3. a person, group, or nation having great influence or control over others

Progress (n.) [ˈprɒɡres]: development towards a better, more complete, or more modern condition.

PROGRESS

1. forward movement • advance • development
2. gradual betterment; especially: the progressive development of humankind