Let's Practise !

1. Dans ces phrases, soulignez les structures au génitif, puis remplacez-les par un déterminant possessif, lorsque c'est possible.

- She was wearing a man's shirt.
- She was wearing her boyfriend's shirt.
- It looks like a woman's handwriting.
- It looks like her brother's handwriting.
- This is a man's job.
- Roald Dahl was a famous children's writer.
- We need a double room with a child's bed.
- She was killed with a butcher's knife.
- The butcher's son has married the Martins's daughter.

2. Corrigez les phrases, en utilisant le génitif là où il doit être utilisé.

- The mother of my boyfriend lives in Australia.
- The death of his father caused him to leave.
- The house belonging to your parents is too small for you.
- The new manager of our company has won the prize.
- The foreign policy of the government is risky.
- The events that happened yesterday caused a disaster.
- He returned home after a holiday of a week in Spain.

3. Formez un génitif avec les éléments entre parenthèses. Faites les modifications nécessaires sur les groupes nominaux.

- This is (the car / the manager).
- I couldn't believe (the boy / the sad story)
- After (a week / work), she felt very tired.
- It was (a decision / her husband) to leave the country.

4. Traduire

- Les loups et les saumons sont des espèces protégées.
- J'ai besoin de deux boîtes d'allumettes.
- Le téléphone est un bon moyen de communication.
- Cette nouvelle me fait plaisir.
- Regarde ! Son pantalon est vraiment sale.
- Il y avait deux moutons dans le jardin des Smith hier soir. Où sont-ils passés ?
- Ce sont les lunettes de mes enfants, pas les vôtres !
